LONDON, November 29.

The earthquake of the 1st instant at Lisbon was most sensibly felt at Toledo, which is 300 miles up the river Tagus, and at the same time of the destruction of Lisbon, a town of some note (but name unknown) situated on the other side of the Tagus, suffered the same miserable fate.

Letters in town from Cadiz import, that by the sudden rising and violent drift of the sea, which, like a flood, almost filled their streets and houses, between 30 and 40 persons were drowned; among others Messrs. Du Plessy and Racine, who, endeavouring to go over the neck of land and reach the country, were overwhelmed and perished in the new road lately made Cadiz was a peninsula, but by this great inroad of the sea is now an entire island.

An earthquake, together with a violent agitation of the water, was lately felt at St. Lucar, and did some damage.

In 1531 there was an earthquake at Lisbon, by which about 1400 houses were overthrown, and six hundred more were so sorely shaken that they were ready to fall, and many of their churches were cast to the ground. The like calamity happened to that city about 200 years before.

Petersburgh, Nov. 1. It appears clearly that our court is preparing in earnest for the execution of her treaty with the crown of Great Britain. The troops that are to enter into that service are to assemble early in the spring in the conquered provinces, where, it is reported, that her majesty will review them in person. It is believed, that the prince of Waldeck, whose reputation as one of the first military genii of this age is thoroughly established, will speedily enter into the service of our court and in all probability have the command of the said troops.

CHARLES-TOWN, February 19.

Since our last, we have learnt, that the Indians who lately robbed the House of Mr. John Williams at Santee, tho' it was thought they would have laid their Bones in the Swamp they had got into, have escaped from thence, and crossed the River at Maxwell's Bluff, on a Bark Log. — We hear, that People in the Country are determined no more of them shall escape that Way, or any other by Land; but it is probable these may reach Fort du Quesne, or Canada, (as we hear, some have hinted they could easily find the Way) unless intercepted in some of the neighbouring Colonies thro' which they must pass.

We hear, that the Parliament of Great-Britain have granted Seven Millions Sterling, for the Service of the current Year; but we have not yet learnt by what Channel the Intelligence came

The Indians continue their Ravages, &c in the back Parts of Pennsylvania: but a small Party has at last ventured to make Head against them.

On Sunday last the Snow Grace, Isaac Sommers Master, bound for Lisbon instead of going out, ran ashore upon the South Breakers, where she is lost. It being fine Weather no Lives were lost, and all her Rigging, Sails, &c. are saved.

On Tuesday died suddenly, Mr. Benjamin d'Harriette, formerly an eminent Merchant of this Town, but had retired from Business some Years — knowing when he had enough. We hear, he has bequeathed a considerable Legacy to the SOUTH CAROLINA SOCIETY.
